Shaheed Udham Singh Government College Sunam SC Welfare Committee

Introduction:

This committee will be dedicated to the welfare of students belonging to SC communities and protecting their rights. This committee will be dedicated to address the grievances and concerns of SC students, with the main objective of uplifting and boosting their morale. The committee will consist of a convener and other committee members who will work to create a harmonious and fraternal atmosphere within the organization.

Functions:

1. To ensure that eligible SC students are not deprived of availing fee concessions and scholarship schemes.
2. Provide information about portal and documents required for students to apply for scholarship.
3. It will help the students to understand the scholarship eligibility criteria.
4. The committee will assist the SC students in filling the scholarship application forms correctly and thoroughly.
5. The committee will create awareness about scholarships, grants, and other financial assistance available to SC students.
6. The committee will create awareness about the rights and protections guaranteed by the SC (Prevention of Atrocities) Act.
7. It will educate students about their rights as well as help them report discrimination, harassment or harassment within the college or elsewhere.
8. SC will cooperate in redressal of grievances raised by students.
9. Will help them avail the benefits of various government-sponsored scholarship schemes.
10. It will ensure that the concerns of SC students are heard and addressed promptly.

The SC Welfare Committee of Shaheed Udham Singh Government College Sunam will play an important role in supporting these students, advocating their rights, and ensuring equal access to educational opportunities.
