Best Practice-II

Title: Students development and engagement to reach beyond academics- Co curricular activities.

Goal:

1. One of the objectives of this activity has also been to inspire the students who have come out of the time of Covid-19 to look again at the traditions and life of our institution with a zealous attitude.
2. To enable the students in recognizing the critical and life saving conditions.
3. To create a feeling of concern in the mind of students about social affairs.

4. Co curricular activities are an excellent way for students to gain skills like creativity, collaboration, adaptability and management etc.
5. Co curricular activities channelize students talent.
6. Holistic development rather than only academics success of learners contribute to creating socially sensitive individuals which the main objective of the institution.

Context:

1. If something is inevitable, we shall have to learn to live with it and look for silver lining. it is said that every challenge comes with some opportunity and we must be vigilant to identify the hidden opportunities, education sector is one such sector. Just giving online lectures is not enough to motivate the interest of learners in education. The facilitator is required to use a variety of tools to keep the learner engaged in learning process.
2. As the college shutdown in the mid of session during covid-19 the students have to utilize their time effectively beyond academic study.
3. Multi fold knowledge and co curricular activities keep learners active.
