ID: 109 Subject/Title: Shortage of Books

Issue/Details: Repected Sir, I am BA part Ist student in college. I recently went to the main library of the college where I saw two students talking to each other saying that due to the shortage of books on a particular subject they had to return the book today after 14 days so that someone else who needed it would get it So other students can also read it. I was surprised to hear those conversations but later I realized that I could tell you about it but I could not find out what the subject of that book was. My purpose of telling you all this is that you can find a proper solution to such problems so that the reading students can get the books more easily. I hope you will take any necessary steps in this regard. I will be thankful to you. Your Faithfully,
