Self-Declaration   Date:18/09/2023

This is to certify that no complaint of any kind like ragging, sexual harassment, caste or religious discrimination has been received in our institution till now. Various committees/cells etc. related to all this keep working from time to time to make the students aware, under which the faculty members go to the classes in their free period and share this information with the students. From time to time, seminars and many other activities are also organized for their upliftment.
